FARCRY 6

Dani Rojas has been a number their whole life. Abandoned at the hospital as a newborn, they were shipped to the Esperanza School for the Lost, “lucky number 13.”

At 16, like most ORPHAN TEENS their age, Dani was shipped off to the Yaran MILITARY ACADEMY, gaining a new number, Cadet 2683. Dani was a natural dead shot with a rifle and began extensive military training for several years. Still, the idea of a career in the military was the last thing they wanted to do. Dani began to act out, often escaping off-base to hang out with counter-culture dissidents and would-be revolutionaries. Despite finding like-minds, Dani didn’t see themselves as a revolutionary. But to the military it didn’t matter. After showing up for roll-call sporting a severe hangover and punching their drill instructor in the throat, Dani was dishonorably discharged and sent out to the street.
